THE following Addreſs of the Mayor, Burgeſſes and Commonalty of the City of Briſtol, has been preſented to His Majeſty by the Right Honourable Robert Nugent, Eſq; one of their Repreſentatives in Parliament, being introduced by the Lord of His Majeſty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Burgeſſes and Commonalty of the City of Briſtol, in Common Council aſſembled.

Moſt gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Burgeſſes and Commonalty of the City of Briſtol, with Hearts warm with Zeal and Gratitude, humbly beg Leave to congratulate your Majeſty, on the Signature and Ratification of the Definitive Treaty; an Event that eminently diſplays the Wiſdom and Moderation of your Majeſty's Councils, and ſecures to us an Honourable and Advantageous Peace, the beſt Fruit of a Glorious and Succeſsful War.

It is with peculiar Satisfaction we obſerve, that many important Acquiſitions, obtained by the irreſiſtable Bravery of your Majeſty's Fleets and Armies in every Quarter of the Globe, are now ceded to Great Britain, which will not only be a Barrier to protect our Colonies and Settlements from Diſpute and Violence hereafter, but greatly extend the Trade and Navigation of your Majeſty's Commercial Subjects: And having an entire Confidence, that your Majeſty's unwearied Attention to the Publick Welfare, will ſo eſtabliſh the eſſential Intereſts of theſe Kingdoms, as to render us a flouriſhing and happy People, permit us, Great Sir, to aſſure you on our Part, that we ſhall at all Times endeavour to further your Majeſty's moſt gracious Intentions, by Cultivating the Arts of Peace, and Tranſmitting the Bleſſings of it, under your Majeſty's moſt Auſpicious Reign, to our lateſt Poſterity.

The following Addreſs of the Maſter, Wardens, Aſſiſtants, and Commonalty of the Society of Merchant-Adventurers within the City of Briſtol, has been preſented to His Majeſty by the Right Honourable Robert Nugent, Eſq; one of the Repreſentatives in Parliament of the ſaid City, being introduced by the Lord of His Majeſty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty.

Moſt gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Maſter, Wardens, Aſſiſtants, and Commonalty of the Society of Merchant-Adventurers within the City of Briſtol, humbly beg Leave to offer to your Majeſty our ſincere Congratulations on the happy Return of Peace, and our grateful Thanks for that Paternal Care and Protection, which, in the Midſt of a vigorous and extenſive War, was conſtantly afforded to the Commercial Intereſts of this Nation.

When we reflect on the unparalleled Succeſſes, with which it pleaſed the Almighty to bleſs the Councils and Arms of your Majeſty, and diſtinguiſh this Æra as the moſt glorious in the Annals of Great Britain, we cannot but feel that exulting Joy, which an honeſt Zeal for our Country's Welfare naturally inſpires; and when we calmly contemplate that heroick Moderation, and conſummate Policy, with which your Majeſty, as the Friend of Mankind, in the Midſt of Victory, ſeized the happy Minute of reſtoring Peace to your People, to your Allies, and, by its Influence, to Europe, our Minds are filled with Admiration and Applauſe.

We beg Leave moſt humbly to aſſure your Majeſty, that we moſt chearfully rely on your Royal Aſſurance, for the Protection and Encouragement of our Commerce and Navigation, and ſhall uſe our utmoſt Endeavours to improve this happy Period, under that Protection, in extending our Trade over the vaſt Tract of Country which is added to your Majeſty's Dominions, and thereby diffuſe amongſt your happy Subjects, the Fruits of your Royal Labour, in conducting ſo Victorious a War, and eſtabliſhing ſo Advantageous a Peace.

The following Addreſs of the Mayor, Jurats and Commonalty of the Town of Winchelſea, has been preſented to His Majeſty by Thomas Orby Hunter and Thomas Sewell, Eſqrs. their Repreſentatives in Parliament, being introduced by the Lord of His Majeſty's Bed Chamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor, Jurats and Commonalty of the ancient Town of Winchelſea in the County of Suſſex.

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Jurats and Commonalty of the ancient Town of Winchelſea in the County of Suſſex, do moſt humbly beg Leave to offer our Congratulations to your Majeſty, upon the happy Concluſion of the War by a Safe and Honourable Peace; a Peace, which from the vaſt Acquiſition of Territory to your Dominions, and the aſcertaining long-diſputed Rights of Commerce, cannot but prove of the greateſt Advantage to your People.

Your Majeſty, at your Acceſſion to the Throne of your Anceſtors, found your Kingdoms involved in an expenſive and bloody War, which had been entered into for the Defence of the juſt Rights of your People, and attended with Glory and Succeſs; and when your Majeſty's early Endeavours to reſtore Peace upon reaſonable and honourable Terms proved ineffectual, the Vigour and Wiſdom of your Majeſty's Meaſures and Councils were exerted in the Proſecution of the War with equal Glory and Succeſs, though againſt the encreaſed and combined Force of your Enemies, till it has pleaſed God to enable your Majeſty to conclude a Safe, Honourable, and Advantageous Peace for your People.

It is our hearty Prayer, that your Majeſty may long live to enjoy the Fruits of the ſame, and reign in

in the Hearts of a grateful People; and that theſe Bleſſings may be tranſmitted to your lateſt Poſterity.

Given under the Common Seal of the ſaid Town, the 23d Day of April, 1763.

The following Addreſs of the Mayor and Burgeſſes of the Borough of Chriſtchurch, has been preſented to His Majeſty by James Harris, Eſq; one of their Repreſentatives in Parliament, being introduced by the Lord of His Majeſty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Mayor and Burgeſſes of the Borough of Chriſtchurch in the County of Southampton.

Moſt gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor and Burgeſſes of the Borough of Chriſtchurch, beg Leave to approach your Throne humbly to congratulate your Majeſty on the Concluſion of a Safe and Honourable Peace; a Bleſſing which we owe (under the Direction of Divine Providence) to thoſe Benevolent and Noble Sentiments, which eminently poſſeſs your Royal Breaſt, and which juſtly conſtitute the Character of a Great and Magnanimous Prince.

That your Majeſty's Reign over us may be long and happy, and that you may enjoy to its remoteſt Period the Fruits of that Peace, which your Prudence, your Equity, and your Humanity have dictated, is our chief, our ſincere, and our ardent Wiſh.

Given under our Common Seal, in the Town hall of the ſaid Borough, the 23d Day of April, in the Third Year of your Majeſty's Reign.

The following Addreſs of the Provoſt, Fellows and Scholars of the College of the Holy and Undivided Trinity of Queen Elizabeth near Dublin, having been tranſmitted to the Earl of Halifax, one of His Majeſty's Principal Secretaries of State, has by him been preſented to His Majeſty: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Provoſt, Fellows and Scholars of the College of the Holy and Undivided Trinity of Queen Elizabeth near Dublin.

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

WE your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Provoſt, Fellows and Scholars of the College of the Holy and Undivided Trinity of Queen Elizabeth near Dublin, entreat your gracious Acceptance of our humble Congratulations, on the late affecting Inſtance of your Majeſty's Attention to the true Intereſt and Happineſs of your Kingdoms, in the Auſpicious Concluſion of an Honourable and Advantageous Peace.

The Royal Favour and Protection, which have been extended to our humble Endeavours to enforce the Principles of Religion and Loyalty, demand our moſt enlivened Expreſſions of Joy and Satisfaction in an Event which diſplays the Greatneſs and the Goodneſs of our Sovereign, and promiſes ſo valuable an Acceſſion to the Bleſſings of His mild and gracious Government.

We gladly cheriſh the Remembrance of that Wiſdom and Magnanimity which directed your victorious Arms through the Operations of a bloody and extended War. But neither the Extent of your Majeſty's Conqueſts, nor the Luſtre of your repeated Victories, great, and ſplendid, and glorious as they are, can inſpire our Minds with ſuch Delight and Reverence, ſuch ardent Gratitude, and loyal Affection, as ariſe from thoſe Princely Virtues of Juſtice, Moderation, and Paternal Tenderneſs, which hold a diſtinguiſhed Place in your Majeſty's Royal Breaſt; the Conſolation of your faithful People, amidſt all their Toils and Diſtreſſes, and the true Source of that Happineſs they now experience, relieved from the Burden, and reſcued from the Calamities neceſſarily attendant upon War, however juſt in its Commencement, and ſucceſsful in its Progreſs.

May that Providence, which hath thus favoured your Majeſty's unwearied Endeavours for the Reſtoration of Peace and Tranquillity, teach us to know and to improve this ineſtimable Bleſſing! And may the ſame Divine Goodneſs, which hath conducted us to this happy Period, continue to preſerve your Kingdoms in firm and permanent Felicity, by continuing its gracious Protection to your Majeſty, and your Royal Houſe.

The following Addreſs of the Provincial Synod of Dumfries, has been preſented to His Majeſty by his Grace the Duke of Queenſberry: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Provincial Synod of Dumfries, met the Twentieth of April, One thouſand ſeven hundred and ſixty-three Years.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Miniſters and Elders of the Provincial Synod of Dumfries, beg Leave to approach your Throne with our humble Congratulations on that Happy and Glorious Peace, by which your Majeſty has reſtored Tranquillity to thoſe Nations lately involved in a bloody and expenſive War.

With devout Gratitude we beheld thoſe ſignal Succeſſes, with which it pleaſed the Almighty to crown the Efforts of the Britiſh Arms. With the higheſt Satisfaction we ſee them improved, by the Wiſdom of your Majeſty's Councils, to the Extending of the Commerce, and the Enlarging of the Territory of Britain. And we felicitate ourſelves on the Proſpect, that, under the benign Influence of your Majeſty's Government, the pure Light of the Goſpel ſhall ariſe to remote Nations, hitherto ſunk in Ignorance and Barbarity; Nations, whoſe lateſt Poſterity, from the happy Æra of your Majeſty's Reign, ſhall date their Enjoyment of the Advantages of civilized Society, and their Knowledge of that Path which leadeth unto Salvation.

That your Majeſty and your Royal Conſort may long enjoy the Fruits of that Peace, which the Wiſdom of your Councils has procured; that you may be the Parents of a Race of Kings inheriting the Virtues and Dominions of their Anceſtors; and that, under the Protection of your Royal Line, true Religion may continue to diffuſe itſelf, and flouriſh till Time ſhall be no more, is the earneſt and daily Prayer of,

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

Your Majeſty's moſt faithful, moſt obedient, and moſt loyal Subjects,

The Miniſters and Elders met in the Provincial Synod of Dumfries.

Signed in our Preſence, in our Name, and by our Appointment, by John Nimmo, Moderator.

The following Addreſs of the Provoſt and Bailies of the Burgh of Inverneſs has been preſented to His Majeſty by Sir Alexander Grant, Bart. their Repreſentative in Parliament, being introduced by the Lord of His Majeſty's Bed-Chamber in waiting: Which

Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

Moſt gracious Sovereign,

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

WE your Majeſty's moſt faithful and loyal Subjects, the Provoſt and Bailies of your Burgh Inverneſs, in common Council aſſembled, do with Joy, equal, if poſſible, to our Duty and the illuſtrious Occaſion, ſincerely congratulate your Majeſty upon the glorious Event of concluding an honourable, ſafe, and advantageous Peace. A Peace that ſecures the Honour and Commercial Intereſts of Great Britain in Europe, Aſia, and Africa, and that gives, in America, a great Empire, bounded by the beſt Barriers that ſound Policy could chuſe, or Nature herſelf could give. By which Acquiſition, not only the primary Cauſe of the late War; but likewiſe all future Occaſions of any ſuch Wars are there totally annihilated. While we reflect with Pleaſure upon the unparalleled Succeſs of your Majeſty's Arms, we cannot but admire the Firmneſs, Steadineſs, and Perſeverance of your Majeſty; the Wiſdom and Conduct of your Counſels, in bringing about a juſt and honourable Peace, when Matters Abroad became more and more embroiled; and when it was the important Queſtion at Home, How it could be effected? or who would venture upon this arduous Buſineſs, and, in this Conjuncture, ſeemingly, an inexplicable Taſk? Experience and Hiſtory irrefragably prove, that Great Britain has arrived at her preſent Pitch of Opulence, Power, and Reſpect, more by cultivating the Arts of Peace and Traffick, than by any other Purſuits. We cannot therefore ſufficiently applaud your Majeſty's good Diſpoſitions and Paternal Attention to the Welfare and Proſperity of your People, in liſtening to, and accepting of, equitable Terms of Peace. Nor ought we here to omit the Regard which your Majeſty ſhowed to your Allies in this ſalutary Work: For by your Majeſty's wiſe Conduct and Counſels all Europe now enjoy the happy Fruits of Peace. No Burgh in your Majeſty's Dominions ſhowed more Zeal and Ardour in procuring and promoting Levies for your Majeſty in the late War; for, during the Courſe of it, we, as your Majeſty's Juſtices of the Peace, in Conjunction with the Juſtices of the County, atteſted ſeveral thouſand Men, who ſignaliſed themſelves in the different Parts of the Globe, where they were employed. This great Drain of Men from one County and Town, muſt make us highly ſenſible of that Heaven-born Bleſſing, Peace. And it is now with unſpeakable Satisfaction we learn, that the Survivors of theſe brave Fellows are to partake of your Majeſty's Bounty, in Three grand and material Objects, viz. Agriculture, Fiſhing, and Manufactures: Objects worthy of the Royal Care and Cognizance; and which want ſo much to be encouraged and extended in this Part of your Majeſty's Dominions, that ſcarce can they have any conſiderable Commencement, far leſs make any great Progreſs, without the Royal Aid.

Now permit us, moſt Gracious Sovereign, Father of your People, to aſſure your Majeſty of our Duty to your Sacred Perſon; of our firm Adherence to your undoubted, legal, and native Title; of our Affection and Fidelity to your Family; and of our inviolable Attachment to your Government.

That the God of Peace may bleſs your Majeſty, your Royal Conſort the Queen, his Royal Highneſs the Prince of Wales, and your Royal Deſcendants, with all the Bleſſings of Peace, is the hearty Prayer of

May it pleaſe your Majeſty,

Your Majeſty's moſt faithful, moſt dutiful, and loyal Subjects, the Provoſt and Baillies of Inverneſs.

Given at our Town-hall, the 16th of April, 1763, and ordered to be tranſmitted to our Repreſentative in Parliament, Sir Alexander Grant.

The following Addreſs of the Magiſtrates and Town Council of the Burgh of Fortroſe, has been preſented to His Majeſty by Sir Alexander Grant, Bart. their Repreſentative in Parliament, being introduced by the Lord of His Majeſty's Bed-chamber in Waiting: Which Addreſs His Majeſty was pleaſed to receive very graciouſly.

To the King's moſt Excellent Majeſty,

The humble Addreſs of the Magiſtrates and Town Council of the Burgh of Fortroſe, in Council aſſembled.

Moſt Gracious Sovereign,

WE, your Majeſty's moſt faithful and moſt loyal Subjects, the Magiſtrates and Town Council of Fortroſe, humbly beg Leave to preſent to your Majeſty (by the Hands of Sir Alexander Grant, Bart. Provoſt of this Burgh) our moſt ſincere and moſt dutiful Congratulations upon your having, with ſo much Wiſdom and Propriety, ſeized the favourable Opportunity of renewing the Negotiations for putting a Period to a bloody and expenſive War; and upon theſe Negotiations happily ending in the ſafe and honourable Peace now proclaimed.—A Peace which, we humbly preſume, has contributed not a little to the reſtoring Tranquility to Mankind.—A Peace, which brings a conſiderable Extent of additional Dominion to your Majeſty; new Advantages and Security to the Trade of your Subjects; and, as far as human Caution and Foreſight can be depended upon, promiſes Stability and Permanence.—A Peace, which gives the agreeable Proſpect of returning many uſeful Hands to this, and other Corners of our Country, ſo much drained by the Numbers drawn out of them for compoſing and recruiting your Majeſty's Sea and Land Forces: And a Peace, the Preliminary Articles whereof met with the juſt Approbation of both Houſes of Parliament, and which cannot fail to give the trueſt Satisfaction to the unprejudiced and diſpaſſionate (we humbly hope by far the greateſt as well as the beſt) Part of our Fellow-Subjects.

May every Thing concur to ſtrengthen your Majeſty's Hands, and encourage your Royal Heart in purſuing the Advantages of this Peace, with the ſame Succeſs, Magnanimity, and tender Regard to your People, with which you proſecuted the late War, in a Manner that does ſo much Honour to your Majeſty, your Councils and Arms; and which will make ſuch a ſhining Figure in the Annals of Great Britain.

We rejoice in the Privilege of approaching the Royal Preſence, by our repeated Congratulations, upon the many glorious and important Events which have been crowded into the ſhort Space paſt of your Majeſty's moſt auſpicious Reign, and in this new Opportunity of profeſſing ourſelves to be, as in Truth we are, with the moſt ſteady, zealous and affectionate Attachment to your Perſon, Family and Government,

Your Majeſty's moſt dutiful
and moſt loyal Subjects,
The Magiſtrates and Town Council of Fortroſe.

Subſcribed in our Preſence and by our Appointment, at Fortroſe, this Nineteenth Day of April, in the Year One thouſand Seven hundred and Sixty-three, by Alex. Houſtoun, Preſes.
